NEW LEGISLATION MAKES SUNDAY HAIR CUTS AND SHAVES LEGAL

ALBANY - A press release from the Governor's office announced that Governor Andrew M. Cuomo on Tuesday signed legislation (S.3812/A.436) that repeals provisions of law prohibiting the practice of barbering on Sunday. Though rarely enforced, there had been a law on the books making it a misdemeanor to cut hair or provide a shave to another person on Sunday. "This is the very definition of an archaic and meaningless law that makes little to no sense in the 21st century," Governor Cuomo said. "While not routinely enforced, I'm more than happy to sign this repeal into law and allow these businesses to determine what days they choose to operate." The law takes effect immediately.
