Dinosaur Invasion: July 9-31, 11am & 1pm. ONEONTA WORLD OF LEARNING AND DANDELION STAGE PRESENT A FAMILY SUMMER INTERACTIVE THEATRE ADVENTURE! Families must help save the world from time-traveling dinosaurs in Dandelion Stage's interactive outdoor theatre performance, Dinosaur Invasion. Performance capacity is 10 children maximum with no accompanying adult attendance cap. Call 607-353-9503 for information. This imagination powered event, geared toward ages 5-12, includes a dino-themed workshop at OWL and pre-adventure craft workshop for audiences build their very own Time-Trap used in performance. In case of inclement weather, we will make every effort to perform, including playing in light rain. However, the safety of our audience, performers and staff's is our primary concern. If a performance is cancelled at any point due to severe weather patrons may re-book for another performance time & date. In the event of show cancellation due weather, tickets are non-refundable but may be exchanged for alternative time & date, subject to performance availability and capacity. If you leave the performance area on your own accord or choose not to attend a performance that was not cancelled, re-bookings will not be accepted. HOROSCOPES

ARIES - MAR 21/APR 20

This week you may find yourself taking on a teaching or mentoring role, Aries. It is one way to volunteer in the community and pay it forward.

TAURUS - APR 21/MAY 21

Taurus, this week it may be challenging for you to relate to others on a certain level. Try to put yourself in someone else's shoes and see things from a different perspective.

GEMINI - MAY 22/JUN 21

It's possible you will find people to be extra aggressive this week, Gemini. Try not to react to what they are putting out. Instead, deflect that negative energy.

CANCER - JUN 22/JUL 22

Get together with others this week because you can use some extra support, Cancer. Otherwise, you may find yourself floundering in an uncomfortable situation.

LEO - JUL 23/AUG 23

Leo, self-control is important for you this week, especially as it pertains to shopping. Do not buy every item you see. Rather, think through purchases before taking the plunge.

VIRGO - AUG 24/SEPT 22

This is a good week to look at things in a new way. All it may take is viewing something from a new angle or with a revised attitude to have an entirely new perception.

LIBRA - SEPT 23/OCT 23

Take a break and get some exercise in the process, Libra. Visit a nearby park and take an extended bicycle ride or jump in the pool to swim a few laps. Enjoy fresh air and breathing room.

SCORPIO - OCT 24/NOV 22

This week you may consider furthering your education or learning new skills. Try volunteering if you're not ready for a financial commitment or if you don't want a firm schedule.

SAGITTARIUS - NOV 23/DEC 21

Spend time with people who care about you, Sagittarius. They can help brighten your day when things feel overwhelming and provide advice when you need it most.

CAPRICORN - DEC 22/JAN 20

Hold your tongue as much as possible, Capricorn. Even a slight criticism may put a person off you for a while and that can cause friction that is tough to overcome.

AQUARIUS - JAN 21/FEB 18

Aquarius, even though you would like to spend most of your time planning fun activities for the future, this week you have to hunker down and focus on business.

PISCES - FEB 19/MAR 20

You may be more sentimental now than in the past, Pisces. Feelings evolve and there is no wrong way to feel. Go with the flow.

FAMOUS BIRTHDAYS - JULY 24 Bindi Irwin, Animal Activist (24) JULY 25 Matt LeBlanc, Actor (55) JULY 26 Roger Taylor, Musician (73) JULY 27 Maya Rudolph, Actress (50) JULY 28 Harry Kane, Athlete (29) JULY 29 Wil Wheaton, Actor (50) JULY 30 Terry Crews, Actor (54)

Theater photos, memorabilia sought

MARGARETVILLE - The Galli-Curci Theater in downtown Margaretville turns 100 this year and organizers of an anniversary celebration are turning to the public for help in locating photographs and memorabilia.

Photographs of the theater, especially its interior; early playbills, invitations, ticket stubs or anything else relating to the theater are requested so that they might be scanned or photographed to add to a display planned for an open house August 27-28. If you have something to share, please contact gallicurci100@gmail.com or call 845-586-4689 and someone will get back to you.

The theater, built in 1922 by publisher and entrepreneur Clarke Sanford, was named for opera star Amelita Galli-Curci who sang at its opening August 25 that year. For more than half a century the brick theater on Main Street was the entertainment center of the community, hosting first silent movies then 'talkies', vaudeville shows, home talent plays, traveling musical troupes, high school graduations, celebrations and observances.

The current owners of the theater - Mike Cioffi and Jonathan Glazer - have planned a centennial celebration for August 27 and 28. In addition to a reception and Saturday night concert by vocalist Gina Hanzlik, the theater will be open both days. Visitors can view an exhibit on the history of the building, Clarke Sanford and Amelita Galli-Curci. 1920s-era silent films will be screened (free popcorn!), and those with comments or recollections of movies or events at the theater may add them to a giant memory wall.

Sheriff's K9 team graduates

Delaware County Sheriff Craig S. DuMond announced the graduation of Corporal Jeffrey Clark and his new K-9 partner, Edge, from the Orange County Sheriff's Office K-9 Academy Friday July 1. After more than three months of training, the class graduated 10 handlers and their new K-9 partners as certified in patrol techniques.

K-9 Edge, a German Shepherd-Belgian Malinois mix, was born in Hungary on Aug. 30, 2020.

Clark and Edge are now certified for patrol, with specific training in obedience, tracking individuals, locating discarded or secreted items, criminal apprehension and handler protection.

Clark and Edge will return to the Academy this fall and further their training and certification in explosives detection.

"I'm very proud of Corporal Clark and K9 Edge in achieving this milestone for the Delaware County Sheriff's Office. Once fully trained in explosives detection, the sheriff's office will be able to provide full-service K-9 services to the people of Delaware County, to include our law enforcement partners on the state and local level.

This valuable resource will enrich these agencies and provide safety and security to the people we are charged with serving and protecting every day," DuMond said.

Heat and health

Warm weather beckons people outdoors to enjoy days at the beach, bike rides in the park or hours in the pool. However, when the weather gets too hot, prolonged time outdoors can adversely affect overall health. Heat exhaustion and heat stroke pose significant threats to anyone who spends ample time outdoors in hot weather. The Mayo Clinic says symptoms of heat exhaustion include heavy sweating, rapid pulse, dizziness, fatigue, moist skin with goose bumps, muscle cramps, nausea, and headache. When someone suffering any of these symptoms does not immediately move into a cool location, they may develop heatstroke. Heatstroke arises when one's body temperature climbs to 104 degrees, according to Penn Medicine. A body at this temperature may experience damage to the muscles, heart, kidneys, and brain. Flushed skin, altered mental state and rapid breathing may occur when suffering from heatstroke. A notable symptom of heatstroke is that perspiration stops completely. Rehydration, cooling the body and loosening tight clothes can help prevent serious consequences.

Vet-Approved Tips to Help Keep Pets Safe this Summer

(Family Features) Extreme temperatures and booming sounds can have big impacts on pets.

With record-breaking heat across much of the nation, the experts at Freshpet are helping pet parents with these tips to help keep their pets healthy and safe this summer.

Heat

Heat stroke can occur quickly in dogs. Without the ability to sweat the same way humans do, it's important for pet parents to understand ways to cool their pets down when temperatures rise and how to avoid common mistakes to keep their pets safe.

"Just because we can manage the heat and humidity, doesn't mean our pets can," said Dr. Aziza Glass, Freshpet's expert veterinarian. "Our pets are vulnerable to temperatures over 80 F. However, there are things we can do to keep our pets safe and protected from heat-related injuries and some may come as a surprise."

 Limit time outdoors: While outdoor activities are typically recommended for pets, their inability to sweat the same way humans do can cause them to heat up quickly. Limit walks to early morning or after the sun sets and stay indoors as much as possible the rest of the day.

 Fill their water bowls: Just like humans, clean water is essential for helping pets manage the heat. Cool water can help cool down your pet's body temperature. Moisture-rich fresh food like options from Freshpet - made with 100% farm-raised chicken, beef or fish and all-natural fruits and veggies - can also help with hydration.

 Avoid shaving your pet: While summer cuts for long-haired dogs are OK, shaving your pet can expose his or her skin to harmful sun damage and cause overheating more quickly.

Glass recommends pet parents educate themselves on how to recognize heat stroke. Heavy panting, drooling, high body temperature, increased heart rate and fatigue are some signs of heat stroke in dogs.

"If you believe your dog is having a heat stroke, bring him or her indoors immediately to help cool down," she said. "A common mistake is putting the pet in a cold ice bath. That can actually shock the system and cause quick changes in blood pressure. Instead, soak a towel in room temperature water and wipe your dog down to start the cooling process. Afterwards, proceed immediately to your primary care veterinarian or closest emergency center."

Fireworks

Booming sounds and crackling fireworks can send some pets into sensory overdrive. According to Glass, with an elevated ability to interpret sound frequencies audibly and physically, dogs' sensitivities to loud noises means some celebrations can make for particularly anxious events. While some dogs hide under beds or jump fences to flee the sounds, there are ways to help make fireworks less stressful for canine companions.

 Create a calm environment: Be aware if you or your neighbors plan to launch fireworks. If so, create a space to help your dog deal with the noise. A sound machine, lavender oil on his or her collar and blankets can help.

 Remain indoors: Avoid taking your dog outside if you're planning to view fireworks or set off your own. A dog's first reaction may be to flee from the noise and search for a safe spot, placing him or her in more danger.

 Stay close: Pets feel less anxious when they feel safe. Make sure you or someone they feel safe with is by their side until the fireworks are over, offering comfort, treats and affection throughout the event.
